e Spring eak That ver Ended

In those first few months, the longstanding hustle and bustle of campus, was silenced, and engulfed every nook and cranny it could find with an eerie tranquility.

Dorms became ghostowns, as the student body scattered to all four corners of the Earth. Left high and dry, Pratt students opened their arms and their homes to one another.

Varun manifests never having to see the professors he hates ever again, as well as seeing professors he did like and learn from, out in the professional world, as peers.

Jessica manifests not crying after every minor and major inconvenience and vows to actually sleep in her bed, instead of randomly slumping over for a nap on the G train out of exhaustion. She is on the verge as she writes this, but will push through nonetheless?

Hey Besties!! Wow we have had a hard road to graduation. Our last year was definitely something none of us imagined. We survived so much bullshit that no one ever deserves to go through. The Class of 2021 deserved more, a better graduation, more time together, more memories, more nights we can't remember, and an actual goodbye from Pratt Institute. This book is our love letter to you. We love y'all so much! You guys are what made our time at school special. Nothing could take away the amazing ideas, the incredible work, and the love that we shared. Thank you for sticking it out despite all Congratulations Class of 2021. We love you. We are so incredibly proud of you. There are only more amazing things for us to do!

the hard times. We made it through and now the only way from here is up.

Here's what we know:

Kim and Kanye have filed for divorce. We knew they have been on the rocks for awhile now. Sadly we know that mental health can really put on toll on individuals and a family.

Remember those tweets? "...Kris Jong-Un..." "...the movie get out is about me..." "... North's mom..." That was all just this year. In the end it wasn't Kanye that got banned from Twitter. Kanye was running for President. He was getting up there with his menatally ill self (just like you and me.) Ulitamately we didnt get Kanye as our Pres, but we did get a new one.

Pandemic, Patagonia, Combination Pizza Hut & Taco Bell, Pizzaria, Hayden Panettiere, Pythagorean Theorem, Panorama, Peppa Pig, Parallelogram, Paradigm, Panini, Robert Pattinson, Pangea, Panera, Panasonic, Portland rocks, Parabola, Polly Pocket, Pisces, Pastrami, Bismal, Pepperoni, President of Pratt Institute.

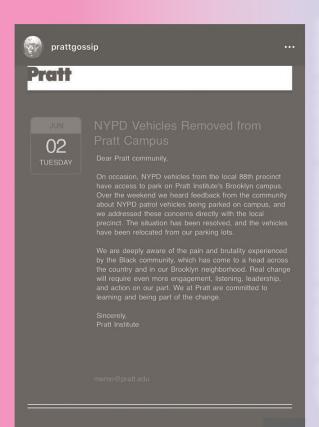

Black Lives Matter at Pratt. Black Lives Matter Everywhere.

Dear Pratt Administration, In response to the murder of George Floyd and subsequent protests, numerous students have reached out directly to Student Government via social media, email and other methods in order to voice their concerns about Pratt's response. Together we have met and discussed what we think Pratt must do to address its own role in combating structural racism and violence.

President Bronet's letter to students states, "As your president, I renew my commitment, and the Institute's commitment, to work to eradicate racism and injustice through our curriculum, our outreach, and our mission." This statement is meaningless without action. Your commitments are meaningless without dedicated follow through. Change doesn't just have to happen on the local, state, or national level; it has to happen within the confines of our own institution of learning. We call on Pratt to do the following: Pratt must immediately break all monetary and symbolic ties with the NYPD and private security companies.* Police and their proxies (private security companies) have no place on our campus. Instead, Pratt must commit resources to support community-led alternatives to policing.

Pratt must decolonize its educational structure and actively integrate Black inclusion in both the curriculum and classroom. In every class in every department, students should learn about Black artists, Black designers, Black architects, and other Black folks who have contributed to their field of study. The Eurocentric, White within the Board of Trustees. They must also create an advisory board that informs them of DEI issues and how their decisions affect Black students, faculty, staff, and the surrounding community.

*Pratt's initial response to remove the police vehicles from the NYPD 88th precinct from campus is a step towards solidarity with Black students and all marginalized communities. However, recent photos show that Pratt did not keep to its word; NYPD vehicles have since been seen at the campus entrance on Emerson and Willoughby.

Our demands are clear: Pratt needs to break all monetary and symbolic ties to the NYPD and explicitly bar them from our campus. In addition to a statement from Pratt, educational resources, donation links, and protest information should have been included. This can be easily done by using Pratt's social media infrastructure as a place to share these resources. We also implore Pratt to make monetary contributions to bail funds, abolitionist organizations, and Black businesses.

The Student Government Association and the rest of the student body demand Pratt Institute to fully commit to making the vital changes we have outlined here. If Pratt is truly a champion of diversity, equity, and inclusion, the Institution needs to implement these changes.

Sincerely

The Pratt Student Body

experience must be decentered across departments and schools. Beyond this, we call on Pratt to immediately begin work on the creation of a Black Studies program, as a part of Pratt's core curriculum. Pratt must renew its commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion as a whole by hiring more non-white, especially Black, faculty to all of Pratt's departments. In addition, diversity training must become mandatory for all members of the Pratt community.

Students at Pratt demand greater transparency behind the implementation of institutional policies. The progress of the Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Strategic Plan must be made publicly available for all members of Pratt's community.

Pratt must commit to financially supporting the Black community inside and outside of its gates by increasing and deepening scholarships for Black students, expanding its HEOP program, and finding ways to reinvest in the neighborhood it has gentrified.

Pratt must diversify who holds leadership positions especially
